E-Enterprise by the Numbers
States, Tribes, and EPA Stronger Together

E-ENTERPRISE for the Environment

Combined Air Emissions Reporting System (CAERS)

State and local programs using CAERS:

GEORGIA

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

PIMA, ARIZONA

RHODE ISLAND

Approximately 300 facilities report in CAERS

Smart Mobile Tools for Field Inspectors

4 — RCRA* & NPDES training sessions for state and regional inspectors learning to use Smart Tools for faster, high-quality inspections

291 — Inspectors attended training

* RCRA: Resource Conservation and Recovery Act
NPDES: National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System

State Planning Electronic Collaboration System for Air Agencies (SPeCS)

50 — States submitting State Implementation Plans (SIPs) tracking progress toward national clean air goals

1,411 — SIP submissions to date through the system

114 — Exceptional Events submissions to date through the system

Participatory Science

51 state, tribal, EPA, and NGO representative participated in a recent workshop

12 strategies make up a multi-stakeholder roadmap to increase use of participatory science data

E-Enterprise Community Inventory Platform (EECIP)

2,150 PROJECTS

266 DISCUSSIONS

829 USERS

Tribal Water Quality Assessments

16 — Tribes have been trained and are electronically submitting water quality assessments to EPA
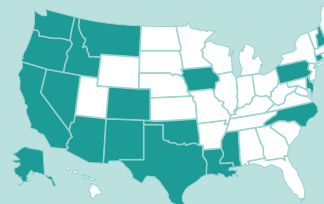

15 — Tribes are currently in training

Safe Drinking Water Information System (SDWIS) Modernization

20 states engaged with the modernization effort:

AK, AZ, CA, CO, DE, IA, ID, LA, MA, MS, MT, NC, NH, NM, NV, OK, OR, PA, TX, WA

Be Well Informed

7,127,554+

Residents served by private wells across 10 participating jurisdictions have access to a free tool to interpret water quality test results